NEW OWNERS IN CONTROL

CANADIAN-AMERICAN COMPANY
PASSES TO FOREIGN INTERESTS.

S. W. GEBBO IN CHARGE

Expected to Start Work in Six Weeks, as Soon as Changes in Title Can be Made—Will Pump out Shaft—Numerous Changes in Staff.

Control of the Canadian-American Coal & Coke company passed to the French interests at the shareholders meeting held in Frank Friday and Saturday. The company is now entirely a French concern, H. L. Frank having disposed of all his stock and the French stock holders and S. W. Gebbo holding the entire issue.

At the meeting at which the transfer was made, S. W. Gebbo, holding proxies, voted nearly the entire issue of stock and the program for re-organization, previously arranged in France, was carried out. The resignations of all of the former officers were tendered and new officials were elected. The officers elected were: President, O. L. Ligeart, Lille-France; vice president, A. Boland, Paris; secretary treasurer, G. C. Roshfort, Frank; directors, O. L. Ligeart, A. Boland, S. W. Gebbo, F. Lesotte, C. Colombe, Georges Cohen.

Mr. Gebbo as managing director, at once assumed charge of the company's property and appointed Samuel McVicar, mine manager and Charles Chestnut mine foreman. The officers retiring are: S. M. McVicar, general manager, J. P. Strickman, vice president and W. J. Pearson, mine manager.

Mr. Gebbo expected to start the mine Monday morning, having, while enroute to Frank, arranged for a market for from 500 to 600 tons of coal a day in Spokane but as the coal required to be screened and the tipple will be more than 100 horses here. In addition it will be necessary to make provision to take care of fully 500 strangers during the meeting in the different towns of The Pass which will mean the distribution of a large sum of money through the district. Captain Beebe yesterday received a communication from Spaulding, Ohio, asking for program and purse etc. the communication stating that it was likely a number of horses from that point would be brought up and entered in the circuit.

All that now remains to insure the biggest kind of a success and coincident large benefits to The Pass is the kind interposition of Providence to provide good weather.

Confidence in Frank is manifested by the Frank Wine & Spirit company which Monday started work on the erection of a five brick business building on Dominion avenue.

The building will be thirty by sixty feet in dimensions and two stories high. The main floor will be occupied by the company and in the basement will be a bonded warehouse. The second story will be made into a hall for meeting purposes and may be fitted up as a play house.

Additional News.

J. F. Silverman, formerly vice president of the coal company who resigned when the re-organization took place last week, has decided to remain with the company and has been appointed traveling salesman. Accompanied by Mrs. Silverman, Mr. Silverman is now in the north.

Peruv Wolstenholme is very seriously ill at Dr. Malcolmson's hospital with pneumonia.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give a musical entertainment with refreshments in Bellevue hall Saturday evening.

A concert and refreshments will be given at Knox church Monday evening.

COLEMAN TO CELEBRATE

The Coleman board of trade met Tuesday evening and transacted considerable important business.

The matter of perhaps chief importance was the consideration of a proposal to incorporate as a town. Letters were read from other places giving the results of incorporation which discouraged the idea and after a general discussion in which it was generally agreed that with the power to levy a poll tax which was extended to villages by the legislature last winter, there were not enough benefits incorporating to offset the added expenses and the meeting voted unanimously against recommending to the council that the village incorporate.

The advisability of celebrating on Dominion Day was discussed and a motion recommending that the town celebrate was carried. A committee was appointed to work up the matter and arrange for a public meeting to be held in the near future, to arrange for the celebration. The committee is composed of O. E. S. Whiteside, general manager of the coal company; Frank Graham, O. W. Benedict and Lloyd A. Masley.

The board has taken steps for an exhibit at the Dominion fair Calgary and was assured by Mr. Whiteside that a coal exhibit would be provided by the International company.

GETTING READY FOR RACES

The Pass turf association started work during the week getting the track and grounds ready for the big race meeting May 21st and 22nd. The track is being regraded, or leveled and surfaced and will be in first class condition. A new judge stand is also being built and the grand stand will be enlarged and forty stalls put up. Captain Beebe states that notwithstanding this provision for stall room it would be necessary to secure more than twice that much stall room as it is certain there will be more than 100 horses here. In addition it will be necessary to make provision to take care of fully 500 strangers during the meeting in the different towns of The Pass which will mean the distribution of a large sum of money through the district.

Captain Beebe yesterday received a communication from Spaulding, Ohio, asking for program and purse etc. the communication stating that it was likely a number of horses from that point would be brought up and entered in the circuit.

All that now remains to insure the biggest kind of a success and coincident large benefits to The Pass is the kind interposition of Providence to provide good weather.

CREATED AN EXCITEMENT

WAS REPORTED MURDER MYSTERY WAS ABOUT TO BE SOLVED.

WAS A FALSE ALARM

Secret Conversation Overheard Which Starred Police Hot Hunt on Investigation Was a Result—Still Profound Mystery—Police Force Enlarged.

A rumor ran through The Pass Monday evening that the murderer of Constable Willmet who was mysteriously killed while on duty the morning of April 16th, had been found or that a clue calculated to lead to an unraveling of the mystery surrounding the killing had been found by the police. The rumor created quite a little excitement and the story was told and re told with added interest as it went the rounds but like all other reports concerning the tragic affair, it proved to have no foundation.

The facts in relation to the story were that a conversation among some foreigners was heard on the street to the effect that a certain man had burned a shirt on which were blood stains, for fear that its discovery might get him into trouble with the police.

The report reached Sergeant Hallett, in charge of the local police detachment and he lost no time in making an investigation but that was all the foundation there was for the rumor, the man was not taken into custody even on suspicion. The investigation developed the fact that the foreigner in question does not get along well with his wife and that during one of their little engagements of recent date, she hit him over the head with a stove poker. Blood ran down on his shirt and he, fearing the discovery of such a crime in his possession might get him into trouble, had burned it.

The police have been steadily at work on the case during the week and among many other lines that have been traced out have had special men here whose talent are supposed to be especially developed in the line of minute searches. These men have made a most careful search for a possible cache of guns but the labor of all engaged on the case have been fruitless. Absolutely nothing has been uncovered that has thrown any light on the case and the mystery surrounding it is as deep as ever.

During the week the force of police in the district has been considerably augmented, three additional men having been provided. The force is now constituted, consists of Sergeant Hallett, in charge of detachment and Constables Holden and Owens, stationed at Frank; Constables Green and Scherck at Coleman, Constable Martin at Little and Constable Harrison at Lundbeck. By the arrangement Frank and Coleman are each given an additional man and the station at Little which had been closed for some time, is re-opened. Constable Cusick, formerly of Coleman has departed for Montreal with the intention of buying his release and is replaced by constable Green.

T-EE CLEANING-UP TIME.

A cleaning campaign is just now going on all over the country, both in Canada and the United States; from east to west from north to south but a few places in particular are making more strenuous effort in that line than others. Notable among them are Duluth, Spokane and San Francisco where a systematic clean-up is being carried on, ridding alleys and back yards of everything that belongs to the garbage pile. In San Francisco and Spokane, special days were set on which the citizens dig and little, old and young turned out and swept and dug and shoveled and built bon fires all day and nothing was kept up until the cities in question were as spick and span from a point of cleanliness and cleanliness as they could be made.

Reform in various ways has struck the people during the past year and while some cities are more in earnest along that line than others, the entire country seems to be awakening to the importance of doing something that hasn't been a part of the daily program in former years. The spring cleaning movement is a good thing; everybody will agree on that score. With the coming of the pussy willows and the tender green grass tops the warm sunshine and the man with the broom, comes the spirit of peace on earth and good will.

Dense shams of a clean city, one whose sanitary arrangements are nearly right as science and hard work can make them. There is no excuse for poor sanitation and the presence of garbage heaps in any town. Now is the time for all good men to get busy and clear their premises of the winter's accumulations.

It would seem a good plan for the villages of this district, Frank included, to follow the example already set by so many places in this regard. The village council has decided that Frank must be cleaned up and notices have been posted about town bearing the mandate of the Council in that respect. It is to be hoped they will see that the order is rigidly enforced.

Is a Frank Impostion.

There exists in Calgary an institution that is owned and conducted by the C.P.R. toward which the attention of the railway commission should be directed by the boards of trade of the country in concerted effort to have the practices of the concern abolished.

The institution is known as the Pacific Carriage company and if ever a concern had a dead immortal cinch it is that one. Its method of doing business works a direct tax on all the country tributary to Calgary as a wholesale center. To illustrate the character of cinch it works and the impostion, or worse, the outrage it is upon the businessman who buys from Calgary wholesale houses and the people who eventually have to foot the bill, the Pacific Carriage company has a monopoly of the hauling of all freight in Calgary. Everything that is purchased from a Calgary wholesale house, must be hauled to the C. P. R. freight sheds by this concern. It does not matter that the wholesale house may have teams of its own to haul goods to the station, they may not do the hauling unless the Pacific Carriage company gets a carriage charge.

As a matter of fact, it is probably true that there is not a wholesale house in Calgary, certainly not one of any pretensions, that does not keep teams for such work and although in many cases the wholesaler does actually haul his own goods, the goods he is shipping to a customer, the carriage charge is arbitrarily collected just the same. Every merchant in Frank or any other town who buys goods in Calgary, pays this outrageous charge and it does not matter how large or how small the consignment the charge is made and collected.

Any person who doubts this statement may verify it by ordering any article of merchandise he may choose from any wholesale house in Calgary he may select and when he goes to the station to pay the freight he will observe on his freight bill an item, "advance charges" which is added to the regular freight charge. If he asks what that item means, he will be told, "carriage in Calgary".

If this thing is not an outrage on the country, The FRANK PAPER does not know the meaning of the term. It would be had enough in all conscience if the merchant had to stand it himself but he does not, of course, he simply adds it to his selling price and in the end the consumer pays it.

One would naturally think retail merchants throughout the country would raise such a howl against the impostion that it would have to be abolished but the fact is that not many merchants are enough interested in the welfare of their customers to care to raise a kick so long as they don't have to stand the expense themselves and so long as the customer does not know anything about it. The same is true of the Calgary wholesaler. It would seem natural that they should protest but they are like their retail customers, the merchants and so the impostion goes on. Of course there is here and there an exception and these are the ones who are starting the protest. The subject has already reached the southern Associated boards of trade but every individual board should register the strongest possible protest. If there were to be gone at earnestly the iniquitous practice could soon be stopped.

THE DOMINION EXHIBITION

The Dominion exhibition to be held in Calgary June 30th to July 31st, which will be opened by Hon. Sidney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, promises to outclass all previous records in its line.

The number of exhibits is larger. The variety is greater. The attractions are the latest devised and the best on the road. The racing program with its $12,000 in purses and its high class entry list, will eclipse any ever seen in Western Canada, while the district exhibits of which there are 60, will give visitors a better idea of the diversity of Western Canada's resources and conditions than could be got by weeks of travel and the expenditure of a lot of money.

One hundred and forty exhibits have already been booked in the various buildings and every available inch of space has been taken up. With applications still coming, manager Richardson has found it necessary to construct three large tents 28 x 56 feet each, and put them together so as to provide additional space under cover for those exhibitors who were not so fortunate as to secure space in the buildings proper.

The work on the grounds and buildings is being pushed rapidly forward and everything promises to be in readiness on opening day.

The question of accommodating the thousands of visitors is not being overlooked. Calgary's fine school buildings, including the recently completed Normal school, by the courtesy and co-operation of Premier Rutherford will who is at the head of the Provincial Department of Education and the local school board, will be transformed into apartment houses. The homes of the citizens will be thrown open with characteristic western hospitality; auxiliary tents will be erected on the private lawns and in other ways the housing and other comforts of the visitors will be looked after.

The show of live stock will be a leading feature of the exhibition and $25,000 in prizes will be awarded. Entries close May 30th.

The music for the exhibition will be furnished by the famous 91st high land regiment band of Hamilton, Ont. The Town State band and musical aggregations of lesser note.

The West Canadian Collieries shipped several cars of coal from the Little workings during the week. The company is carrying on its development work and is keeping quite a number of men employed.

Next Monday evening is the regular meeting night of the board of trade.
